Confirmation: I understand that the information requested in this application is to determine the applicant's qualifications, that it is reserved for confidential use by the University and the Texas Architectural Foundation Directors (as may be applicable), and I release it for that purpose.

Certification: I further certify that the information supplied in this application is accurate, and I understand that making inaccurate or false statements could disqualify my application. If a scholarship is awarded to me, I promise to use the grant for the continuation of my architectural education at Texas A&M University. I further promise to apply myself diligently during the period for which the scholarship is awarded.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Of the several scholarships that may be considered with respect to this application, each usually has its own criteria. Some scholarships may list either financial need or scholastic standing as the most important consideration. Some may have other or additional criteria, such as the hometown of the student. Information about scholarships and eligibility requirements are listed on the College of Architecture web site and in the College of Architecture Scholarship Directory.

Students should note that the issuance of a scholarship does not ensure the awarding of a scholarship for subsequent academic years. In addition, there is no guarantee that the amount of a scholarship awarded in one academic year will be of an equal or greater value the following academic year.

I have read, understand, and have complied with the information, instructions, and certification contained in and associated with this scholarship application. I further certify to the best of my knowledge, information and belief that this application is a complete and accurate representation of my financial need, scholastic standing and other personal circumstances and career objectives.
