Application: Students must receive signed approval from the Department of Architecture Undergraduate Advisor or the advisor for the Minor. Application is then made in the student's home college or major department.

Eligibility: Students applying for a minor in Art and Architectural History must have a 2.0 or better overall GPR. Application is made in the student's home college or major department. Some colleges and departments outside the College of Architecture do not permit their students to minor.

Satisfactory completion of courses: To be awarded the minor in Art and Architectural History and receive transcript recognition, students must obtain a "C" or better in each course listed above (or in any transfer course used as an equivalent).

Transfer courses: The student's home college or major department may grant, with agreement from the College of Architecture, transfer course work subject to approval by the History faculty. A course syllabus must be submitted for review by the history faculty in order to be considered for transfer credit.

Effective date: The minor becomes effective at the beginning of the fall semester 2009. Students declaring a minor in Art and Architectural History must meet all requirements listed in this document to receive transcript recognition.

Advising: Per University guidelines, the student's home college or major department is responsible for advising students pursuing a minor in Art and Architectural History.

Degree Audit: The degree audit in SIMS will certify during the semester of their graduation that students have met the requirements for the minor. The minor will be recognized after graduation on the transcript, but not on the diploma. Once declared, minor requirements become graduation requirements.
