

CENTER FOR HERITAGE CONSERVATION
COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE ▪ TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Historic Preservation Symposium

travel

Bryan/College Station are the twin cities that are home to Texas A&M University.

traveling by air

Easterwood Airport (CLL) in College Station has daily flight service through Continental Express and American Eagle.

traveling by car

from Houston

College Station is approximately 95 miles northwest of Houston. From the 610 loop, take Hwy 290 W (toward Austin) approximately 45 miles. At Hempstead, take Hwy 6 N (toward Bryan) approximately 43 miles. Take the FM 60 / University Dr. exit, and turn left onto University Dr.

from Austin

College Station is approximately 107 east of Austin. If coming from the Austin-Bergstrom airport, take Hwy 71 E (toward Bastrop) approximately 24 miles. Hwy 71 merges with Hwy 21. In Bastrop, follow signs to Hwy 21 E (toward Bryan) and continue approximately 66 miles. Prior to entering Bryan, take Hwy 47 S (toward College Station) approximately 6 miles where it merges onto FM 60 E / University Dr.

from Dallas/Ft. Worth

College Station is approximately 182 south of Dallas. If coming from Ft Worth, take I-35W South (toward Waco) approximately 83 miles. If coming from Dallas, take I-35E South (toward Waco) approximately 92 miles. In Waco, exit 340 Loop and turn left, continuing approximately 2-3 miles. Turn left onto Hwy 6 S (toward Bryan) approximately 90 miles.