

The Tenth Annual Historic Preservation Symposium

Building on Green: Preservation and Sustainability

Friday 27 February 2009

Geren Auditorium, College of Architecture, TAMU

- 5:15 PM REGISTRATION at Geren Auditorium
5:45 Welcome and Introductions
6:00 Historic Preservation: The Core of Sustainable Development
Donovan Rypkema, PlaceEconomics, Washington D.C.
- 7:30 DINNER at the Texas Furniture Company Building,
206 North Main St., Downtown Bryan
(purchased ticket required)

Saturday 28 February 2009

Geren Auditorium, College of Architecture, Texas A&M Campus

- 8:00 AM REGISTRATION / coffee, juice, pastries
8:45 Welcome and Introductions
9:00 Maturing the "Greenest Building" Paradigm: The Need to Transform Preservation
Carl Elefante, AIA, LEED AP, Principal, Quinn Evans Architects, Washington, D.C.
- 9:50 Sustainability: It's All Just a Little Bit of History... Repeating
Elaine Adams, AIA, LEED AP, Senior Consultant, Rocky Mountain Institute, Boulder, Colorado
- 10:40 break
- 11:00 Historic Preservation and LEED: Do the Numbers Represent Reality? A Case Study Comparison
Ronald Staley, Hon. AIA, FAPT Senior Vice President, Christman Company, Lansing, MI
- 11:50 Beyond Green: the Next Steps for Preservation in Stewardship of the Built Environment
Robert A. Young, PE., Associate Professor, University of Utah
- 12:40 PM Lunch
- 1:45 Historic Preservation and Sustainability: The Challenge of Modern Architecture
Gene Hopkins, FAIA, Hopkins Burns Design Studio, Ann Arbor, MI
- 2:45 PANEL DISCUSSION: Preservation and Sustainability
Moderator: Dr. Tazim Jamal, Associate Professor, Recreation Parks and Tourism, TAMU
- 3:45 Concluding Remarks
4:00 Adjourn